

GMG/SASOG Private Practice Weekend Saturday 27 and Sunday 28 April 2024 Blaauwberg Beach Hotel, Cape Town

GMG /SASOG Private Practitioners are invited to join GMG/SASOG for a retreat designed to provide a unique blend of relaxation and knowledge sharing, connecting with fellow practitioners and gaining insights to enhance your professional journey.

Saturday 27 April 2024

Program

08h00 - 08h30	REGISTRATION
08h30 - 08h45	Welcome	SASOG President
08h45 - 09h25	Why do we need coding	Dr Conrad Mashiloane
09h25 - 10h05	Which codes?	Karen van der Westhuizen
10h05 - 10h40	Integrating the Coding Companion into daily billing	Dr Conrad Mashiloane Karen van der Westhuizen
10h40 - 11h05	TEA BREAK
11h05 - 11h45	Costing Study feedback	Dr Conrad Mashiloane
11h45 - 12h25	What is a Relative Value Unit (RVU)	Dr JP du Buisson
12h30 - 13h30	LUNCH
13h35 - 14h05	Understanding the changes to HPCSA rules in practice	Speaker TBC
14h05 - 14h45	Are medical aids not supposed to use MDCM coding	Funder
14h45 - 15h25	Interpreting the role of PMB's	Funder
15h25 - 15h45	TEA BREAK
15h45 - 16h25	Why do we need additional motivation when using ICD 10 codes?	Funder
16h25 - 17h00	Do guidelines reduce medicolegal risk from an indemnity insurers point of view?	Indemnity insurer

Sunday 28 April 2024

08h00 - 08h30	BetterGyn Implementation	Professor Greta Dreyer
08h30 - 09h45	Where does obstetrics fit into the NHI vision	Panel discussion
09h45 - 10h05	Let's talk SASOG app	James Shaw
10h05-10h25	TEA BREAK
10h25 - 11h00	BetterOBS Collaborative Care Initiative: Is this the future of obstetrics?	Dr Malikah van der Schyff
11h00 - 11h40	Do Obstetricians burn out or just pass?	Speaker TBC
11h00-12h00	Closing and comments

Terms and Conditions:

The invitation is open to all SASOG/GMG members. The invitation covers:

- Meeting on Saturday 27 April - full day
- Meeting on Sunday 28 April - half day
- Double B&B accommodation on Saturday 28 April at Blaauwberg Hotel for delegates residing outside of the Cape town area
- Dinner with partners on Saturday night